Alabama CTE

Advanced Television Production

Apply safety skills in television production field locations, classrooms, and studios. ADTVP1	1 Apply safety skills in television production field locations, classrooms, and studios. ADTVP1
Demonstrate leadership skills as a member of a television production team. ADTVP2	A Examples: organizing content, managing equipment, performing assignment editing ADTVP2A
Utilize public relations skills in special programs and project settings in television production. ADTVP3	A Examples: interpersonal communications, correspondence, community relations ADTVP3A
Apply specialized skills to perform television roles in writing, producing, performing, photographing, editing, and studio operations. ADTVP4	A Examples: anchor, producer, actor, camera operator, editor, director ADTVP4A
Organize subject matter into meaningful, marketable, and expressive video projects. ADTVP5	A Examples: promotional videos, instructional videos, commercials ADTVP5A
Design creative television and film productions, including short films and special pr	A Utilizing video skills in a professional setting Examples: internships, freelance video work ADTVP6A

Skip to main content

Assemble a portfolio of professional quality video work, including a statement of purpose, for a career in television production. ADTVP7

A Demonstrating advanced skills in one or more career specializations of photography, editing, writing, producing, performance, or studio operations
Examples: short films, special presentations ADTVP7A