Alabama CTE

Television Production —Studio Operations

Use safety skills associated with television production studio operations. TVPS01	1 Use safety skills associated with television production studio operations. TVPS01
Apply aspects of studio operations to television information-gathering techniques. TVPS02	A Examples: live truck, satellite feeds, tape, and digital video files TVPS02A
Differentiate among television studio operation styles. TVPS03	A Examples: informative, entertaining, sensational TVPS03A
Utilize proper studio operations public relations skills. TVPS04	A Examples: clear headset communication, positive attitude, polite demeanor TVPS04A
Demonstrate ethical behavior for studio operations. TVPS05	A Examples: video and audio decisions, monitoring content, libel laws TVPS05A
Demonstrate desirable leadership skills as a studio operations team member. TVPS06	A Examples: creating show rundown, giving and following directions, participating in team critiques TVPS06A
Solve simple lighting, audio, video, set design, and studio production problems TVPS07	7 Solve simple lighting, audio, video, set design, and studio production problems TVPS07
Utilize a character ge eff a production. TVPS08	8 Utilize a character generator and special effects generator during a roduction. TVPS08

Skip to main content

Select necessary controls on a master switcher during a television production. TVPS09	9 Select necessary controls on a master switcher during a television production. TVPS09
Utilize an audio mixer during a television production. TVPS010	10 Utilize an audio mixer during a television production. TVPS010
Demonstrate studio operations skills in a regularly scheduled television program. TVPS011	11 Demonstrate studio operations skills in a regularly scheduled television program. TVPS011
Compare career options for the studio operations industry. TVPS012	A Examples: director, lighting technician, operations manager, technical engineer, satellite or microwave live truck operator TVPS012A