Colorado CTE

Warehousing & Distribution Center Operations (2015): Grades 9, 10, 11, 12, Higher Education

Adopted 2015

Understand the process of managing goods and services related to warehouse and distribution center operations. WDOP.01

01. Prepare, process, and store incoming and outgoing goods and materials in order to demonstrate efficient and effective warehouse and distribution center operations. WDOP.01.01

- a. Develop packaging, storage, and handling solutions for goods and materials. WDOP.01.01.A
- b. Process incoming goods and materials using standardized protocols and procedures. WDOP.01.01.B
- c. Process outbound shipments using standardized protocols and procedures. WDOP.01.01.C
- d. Manage inventory according to company policies and customer requirements. WDOP.01.01.D

02. Assess and improve the performance of warehousing and distribution operations to meet customer and business requirements. WDOP.01.02

- a. Apply strategies to assess and recommend improvements to warehousing operations systems, processes and procedures. WDOP.01.02.A
- b. Apply strategies used to assess and recommend improvements to the performance and reliability of material handling equipment and warehouse management information systems. WDOP.01.02.B

03. Monitor, assess and recommend areas for improving the compliance of warehouse and distribution center operations with company policies and government laws and regulations in order to promote a safe and environmentally friendly workplace. WDOP.01.03

- a. Apply protocols and procedures to maintain compliance with and performance of health, safety and environmental management system requirements. WDOP.01.03.A
- b. Apply protocols and procedures to maintain compliance with and performance of security and loss prevention systems. WDOP.01.03.B

Skip to main content

c. Apply protocols and procedures to maintain compliance with and performance of quality management systems. WDOP.01.03.C