Maine Health and Physical Education

Physical Education: Kindergarten

Motor Skills and Movement Patterns: Physically literate students demonstrate competency in a variety of motor skills and movement patterns. PE.1

Locomotor Skills

1 Practices critical elements of locomotor skills. 1.1

Non-locomotor Skills

1 Practices critical elements of non-locomotor skills. 1.2

Locomotor and Non-locomotor Combination Skills

1 Replicates locomotor skills in response to teacher led creative movement sequence. 1.3

Manipulative Skills

1 Practices critical elements of basic manipulative skills. 1.4

Concepts and Strategies: Physically literate students apply knowledge of concepts, principles, strategies and tactics related to movement and performance. PE.2

Movement Concepts

1 Demonstrates a variety of movements associated with basic motor performance. 2.1

Strategies and Tactics

1 Uses teacher feedback to improve basic form and function. 2.2

Fitness Education: Physically literate students demonstrate the knowledge and skills to plan, execute, self-monitor, achieve, and maintain a health-enhancing level of physical activity and/or fitness. PE.3

Health-Related Fitness and Exercise.

1 Identifies the physiological signs of moderate to vigorous physical activity, 3.1

Skill-Related Fitness and Training

1 Demonstrates control of body and space when performing skill-related fitness components. 3.2

Training Principles for Fitness and Sport

1 Participates in a teacher-directed workout that includes moderate to vigorous physical activities. 3.3

Skip to main content

ealth-related and/or sport training and/or fitness plan

1 Participates in a teacher-directed workout that includes moderate to vigorous physical activities. 3.4

Fitness, Sport, and Technology

1 Participates in a teacher-directed skill-related fitness, and/or dance/movement video resource at school. 3.5

Physical Activity, Community,

1 Participates with family in activities that are enjoyable, challenging, fun and/or that allow for self-expression. 3.6

Responsible Personal and Social Behavior: Physically literate students exhibit responsible personal and social behavior that respects self and others. PE.4

Personal Responsibility

1 Uses basic strategies, concepts, and communication skills for working cooperatively in group settings. Acknowledges responsibility for behavior when prompted. 4.1

Working with Others

1 Demonstrates cooperative skills. Understands how social interaction can make activities more enjoyable. 4.2

Rules, Etiquette, and Safety

1 Uses safe practices when engaging in physical education activities. 4.3

Recognition of the Value of Physical Activity: Physically literate students recognize the value of physical activity for health, enjoyment, challenge, self-expression, and /or social interaction. PE.5

Health

1 Recognizes that physical activity is important to good health. 5.1

Challenge

1 Understands that some physical activities are challenging. 5.2

Self-expression and Enjoyment

1 Identifies positive feelings that result from participating in physical activity. 5.3

Social Interaction

1 Recognizes that physical activity can help develop friendships. 5.4