Ohio Social Studies

Grade K

Adopted 2018

History	1.	Time can be measured. K.H.1
	2.	Personal history can be shared through stories and pictures. K.H.2
	3.	Heritage is reflected through diverse cultures and is shown through the arts, customs, traditions, family celebrations and language. K.H.3
	4.	Symbols and practices of the United States include the flag, Pledge of Allegiance and the National Anthem. Other nations are represented by symbols and practices too. K.H.4
Geography	5.	Terms related to direction and distance, as well as symbols and landmarks, can be used to talk about the relative location of familiar places. K.GE.5
	6.	Models and maps represent real places. K.GE.6
	7.	Humans depend on and impact the physical environment in order to supply food, clothing and shelter. K.GE.7
	8.	Individuals are unique but share common characteristics of multiple groups. K.GE.8
Government	9.	Individuals share responsibilities and take action toward the achievement of common goals in homes, schools and communities. K.GO.9
	10.	The purpose of rules and authority figures is to provide order, security and safety in the home, school and community. K.GO.10
Economics	11.	Individuals have many wants and make decisions to satisfy those wants. These decisions impact others. K.E.11
	12.	Goods are objects that can satisfy an individual's wants. Services are actions that can satisfy individual's wants. K.E.12