

Grades 9-12

Communication

1 Student communicates effectively in large and small groupings 1.1

- a Student develops content and ideas into organized presentations. 1.1.A
 - b Student learn to monitor and adjust based upon the audience 1.1.B
 - c Student uses appropriate language and style 1.1.C
 - d Student expresses themselves effectively in interpersonal situations 1.1.D
 - e Student identifies and understands non-verbal communication cues 1.1.E
-

2 Student writes effectively 1.2

- a Student organizes thoughts and ideas 1.2.A
 - b Student employs appropriate writing formats 1.2.B
 - c Student exhibits appropriate word use and grammar 1.2.C
-

3 Student listens effectively 1.3

- a Student listens and observes to gain better interpret information and instructions. 1.3.A
 - b Student checks for accuracy and comprehension by asking questions and paraphrasing. 1.3.B
 - c Student uses the appropriate listening level for particular circumstances and contexts 1.3.C
-

4 Student effectively uses various mediums of communication 1.4

- a Student communicates through oral, artistic, graphic and/or multimedia presentations 1.4.A
 - b Student demonstrates use of available technology to present ideas and concepts. 1.4.B
-

Organization and managerial skills

1 Student demonstrates self-organization. 2.1

- a Student exhibits effective time management skills 2.1.A
 - b Student learns to prioritize commitments 2.1.B
 - c Student formulates and employs goal setting strategies. 2.1.C
-

2 Student plans & implements organized projects. 2.2

- a Student formulates & employs project goals. 2.2.A

- b Student uses sequential project planning steps. 2.2.B
 - c Student uses appropriate evaluation tools. 2.2.C
-

3 Student demonstrates effective meeting skills 2.3

- a Student practices a variety of meeting formats 2.3.A
 - b Student demonstrates meeting preparedness. 2.3.B
-

4 Student understands the structure of his/her organization. 2.4

- a Student demonstrates knowledge of constitution and by-laws. 2.4.A
 - b Student identifies the chain of command within their school. 2.4.B
 - c Student understands & executes his/her job responsibilities and duties. 2.4.C
-

Character Development

1 Student takes responsibility for personal actions and acts ethically (i.e. demonstrates character traits) 3.1

- a Student demonstrates respect for the rights and abilities of self and others 3.1.A
 - b Student defines and demonstrates ethical behavior. 3.2.B
 - c Student models responsible actions and a positive attitude 3.3.C
 - d Student identifies appropriate Character traits: respect, fairness, caring, citizenship, trustworthiness, responsibility 3.4.D
 - e Students understand that a variety of models exist for ethical decision making. 3.5.E
-

Goal Setting

1 Students will understand and participate in the process of setting, achieving, and evaluating goals. 4.1

- a Student understands the purpose of goal setting and can write realistic goals that correspond with individual or group vision and or philosophies. 4.1.A
 - b Students develop action plans to monitor and achieve both long and short term goals 4.1.B
 - c Students monitor, adjust, and/or reflects upon goals 4.1.C
-

Decision-Making

1 Students understand the processes for making decisions. 5.1

- a Students will identify problems needing to be solved. 5.1.A
-

2 Students understands the roles of being a leader and being a follower 5.2

- b Students will learn and identify various decision-making styles (autocratic, democratic, consensual, laissez-faire) 5.2.B
-

3 Strengths and weaknesses of group will be examined by students. 5.3

- c Students will recognize appropriate decision making style for various situations and scenarios. 5.3.C

4 Students will gain empowerment by the decisions they make. 5.4

- d Students will recognize the impact of individual and group decisions 5.4.D
 - e Students will predict the possible outcomes of decisions and use that to guide new decisions to be made 5.5.E
-

Group Process

1 Students will be able to effectively interact in a variety of groups and variety of settings 6.1

- a Students understand the stages of group development 6.1.A
 - b Students practice teambuilding 6.2.B
 - c Students identifies group dynamics and personality styles in a variety of situations and scenarios 6.3.C
 - d Students learn how to appropriately relate to a variety of different groups 6.4.D
-

Conflict Resolution

1 Students understand and utilize strategies for resolving conflicts 7.1

- a Students identify and comprehend the various styles of conflict resolution including their own personal style. 7.1.A
 - b Students learn to recognize internal and external conflicts. 7.2.B
 - c Students learn to actively listen and and exercise non-judgmental and non-bias decisions when solving conflicts 7.3.C
 - d Students utilizes consensus building strategies that ensure some level of equity for parties involved. 7.4.D
-

Citizenship

1 Students understand ways to positively contribute to local, national, and global communities. 8.1

- a Students will develop an awareness of ways to positively influence local, regional, state, national, and global communities. 8.1.A
 - b Students will assume an active role in their local, regional, state, national, and global communities. 8.2.B
 - c Students will recognize and develop methods to serve others. 8.3.C
-

Diversity

1 Students are knowledgeable and respectful of the many groups that exist and how diverse they can be. 9.1

- a Student identifies contributions made by diverse individuals and populations. 9.1.A
- b Students plans and coordinates events and activities that are inclusive. 9.2.B
- c Students refrain from offensive bias, or discriminatory actions or remarks. 9.3.C
- d Students develop an awareness and understanding of the current social and political situation of diverse individuals and populations 9.4.D