

Holocaust and Genocide: Grade 8

Adopted 2023

Grade 8

4. Geographic thinkers respond to historical and spatial literature, including diverse narratives, to understand issues from a spatial perspective. 8.G.GLE.1.4

EOb. Analyze patterns of conflict and cooperation that resulted from human migration and the economic, political, ethnic, and social implications of those interactions. 8.G.GLE.2.EOB

5. Economic thinkers understand that economic actions have both direct and indirect effects on people living in poverty, children, the disabled, ethnic, religious, and cultural groups who may not have a voice in decision-making. 8.E.GLE.1.5

EOe. Discuss the tensions between individual rights and liberties with state, tribal, and national laws. 8.C.GLE.2.EOE