

Interior Design II (2005): Grades 9, 10, 11, 12

Adopted 2005

Career Development

- 00. Analyze career development techniques appropriate for entry-level and technical employment in the residential and non-residential design field. A.1.00
  - 01. Describe employment opportunities, educational requirements, and job trends. A.1.01
  - 02. Relate workplace readiness standards and behaviors. A.1.02
  - 03. Demonstrate job seeking skills. A.1.03

---

- 00. Interpret career development techniques appropriate for professional and entrepreneurial positions in the residential and non-residential design field. A.2.00
  - 01. Explain employment opportunities, educational requirements, and job trends. A.2.01
  - 02. Relate workplace readiness standards and behaviors to a professional environment. A.2.02

---

- 00. Evaluate business skills needed by an entrepreneur or a professional in the residential and non-residential design field. A.3.00
  - 01. Define factors influencing entrepreneurship. A.3.01
  - 02. Determine managerial skills needed to operate a business. A.3.02
  - 03. Demonstrate ways to compute a client's cost of goods and services. A.3.03
  - 04. Explain simple project presentation techniques appropriate for residential and non-residential design. A.3.04

Design Fundamentals and Theory

- 00. Apply the elements and principles of design in the residential and non-residential design field. B.4.00
  - 01. Illustrate the elements and principles of design. B.4.01
  - 02. Document how the elements and principles of design are used in interior design. B.4.02

---

- 00. Critique residential and non-residential space in respect to space planning guidelines. B.5.00
  - 01. Explain the use of residential and non-residential spaces. B.5.01

02. Organize furniture layout using floor plans. B.5.02

---

00. Produce simple residential and non-residential architectural drawings. B.6.00

01. Interpret architectural styles. B.6.01

02. Interpret architectural terms and symbols. B.6.02

03. Cite sources and usage of building code requirements. B.6.03

04. Design a landscape plan incorporating natural and manufactured elements. B.6.04

05. Identify the components of house plans. B.6.05

06. Draw basic floor plans and elevations. B.6.06

07. Produce computer-aided floor plan designs. B.6.07