

Principles of Family and Human Services (2016): Grades 9, 10, 11, 12

Adopted 2016

Understand skills needed for personal and professional success. 1.00

01. Understand intrapersonal and interpersonal skills. 1.01

02. Understand the value diversity brings to 21st century workplaces and communities. 1.02

03. Understand leadership skills to empower individuals and build effective teams. 1.03

Understand life literacy and management. 2.00

01. Understand skills to manage physical, mental, and emotional health. 2.01

02. Understand food management principles, issues, and practices that face individuals, families, and communities. 2.02

03. Understand financial literacy skills to manage resources and achieve goals. 2.03

04. Understand housing and apparel design, selection, and management to achieve optimal wellbeing. 2.04

Understand individual and family systems. 3.00

01. Understand human ecology and individual development. 3.01

02. Understand the 21st century American family. 3.02

03. Understand parenting styles and practices to support growth and development. 3.03

04. Remember the resources and support services available to protect children, families, and older adults. 3.04

Understand community systems. 4.00

01. Remember components of a community. 4.01

02. Understand community development principles, issues, and challenges to positively affect change. 4.02

Understand the human services field. 5.00

01. Remember key leaders and career pathways within the human services field. 5.01

02. Understand human services delivery systems and service populations. 5.02

Understand professional skills needed in the human services field. 6.00

01. Understand customer-client relationships to improve effectiveness and image of the organization. 6.01

02. Understand information management skills to work effectively and efficiently. 6.02

03. Understand professional development skills needed for success in the human services field. 6.03