7 The student demonstrates understanding of the Declaration of Independence and the arguments of leading founders. 7.SS.7

- A The student reads and discusses the meaning of the first, second, and final paragraphs of the Declaration of Independence and selections from the remainder, including the first draft's sections on slavery. C 7.SS.7.A
- B The student explains the meaning of "the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God," including the founders' argument that there is a standard of justice in nature that does not change and is true of all peoples in all times, and that an eternal God is responsible for this unchanging truth. C 7.SS.7.B
- C The student explains the meaning of "created equal," including the founders' argument that each person is equally human and as such has the same dignity and natural rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, that each is endowed with these rights by the God that created them, and that the existence of human slavery was understood by most, but not all, of the founders to be a contradiction of the principle of human equality. C 7.SS.7.C
- D The student explains the meaning of "natural rights" and "unalienable," including the founders' argument that fundamental rights arise out of man's nature as a human person, that these rights do not come from other people or any government, and that these rights cannot be denied or taken away unless the person has used them to violate the rights of another. C 7.SS.7.D
- E The student explains the meaning of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," in particular the founders' argument that each human being has the right by nature to their own life, to their liberty and the general freedom of thought and action, and to seek the happiness appropriate to human liberty as long as it does not violate the rights of others. C 7.SS.7.E
- F The student explains the meaning of "the consent of the governed," including the founders' argument that legitimate government derives its just powers from the consent of those that are governed, who in turn have delegated limited powers to government in order to secure their rights. C 7.SS.7.F
- G The student explains that the purpose of government as outlined in the Declaration of Independence is to "secure these rights," meaning those fundamental rights derived from "the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God." C 7.SS.7.G
- H The student explains the argument of the Declaration of Independence that when government "becomes destructive" of its purpose of securing rights, a people may change or abolish their government and institute new government to best effect their safety and happiness. C 7.SS.7.H
- I The student explains why the delegates to the Second Continental Congress voted to declare independence from Great Britain, including the list of grievances and other historical events since 1763. C 7.SS.7.I
- J The student explains how America's founding based on these words of the Declaration of Independence was unprecedented in human history: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.”

C 7.SS.7.J

- K The student explains what the Land Ordinance of 1785 and the Northwest Ordinance of 1787 accomplished for public education, private land ownership, and the abolition of slavery. HC 7.SS.7.K

- A The student explains the different roles and responsibilities of each house of Congress, the Presidency, and the Judiciary. C 7.SS.9.A
- B The student explains the checks and balances each branch possesses to resist tyranny in the other two branches. C 7.SS.9.B
- C The student explains the legal meaning of “citizen” in the United States, the legal process for becoming a citizen, and the responsibilities, rights, and privileges of citizenship at the different levels of government, and the introduction of birthright citizenship through the Fourteenth Amendment. C 7.SS.9.C
- D The student explains the importance of a well-informed, virtuous, and industrious citizenry within representative self-government. C 7.SS.9.D
- E The student explains how the scope of the people’s voting rights at the American founding was the exception in history. HC 7.SS.9.E
- F The student explains the different positions on slavery among the founders and their generation, including those who did not hold slaves and worked for its abolition, those who held slaves but wished for its abolition, and those who were in favor of slavery and its continuation. C 7.SS.9.F
- G The student names and explains the three clauses of the Constitution pertaining to slavery and Frederick Douglass’s “The Constitution of the United States: Is It Pro-Slavery or AntiSlavery?” HC 7.SS.9.G
- H The student explains the ways in which slavery was expanded and restricted in the states during the American founding years of 1763-1789. HC 7.SS.9.H
- I The student explains the importance of the Constitutional practice of free speech, the free press, and civil dialogue in representative self-government. C 7.SS.9.I
- J The student explains the positions in the ratification debate concerning the Constitution. HC 7.SS.9.J
- K The student explains the ways in which the U.S. Constitution was unprecedented in human history, especially in its form of government, institutional innovations, and underlying moral principles. HC 7.SS.9.K

10 The student demonstrates knowledge and understanding of American history from the presidency of George Washington through the War of 1812. 7.SS.10

- A The student tells the biography of Alexander Hamilton, including: H 7.SS.10.A
