

History and Social Science

The Structure of Government and Organizations - The student demonstrates an understanding of the basic values, principles, and operations of government and other organizations. HIST-GVNT

1 Recognize and Recall

- a Recognize that there are rules to keep us safe HIST-GVNT.1A
 - b Recognize that there are people in charge HIST-GVNT.1B
 - c Recognize authority figures in different contexts HIST-GVNT.1C
 - d Recognize people who are responsible for making and enforcing laws HIST-GVNT.1D
-

2 Identify and Comprehend

- a Identify government figures and their responsibilities HIST-GVNT.2A
 - b Identify the difference between rule and a law HIST-GVNT.2B
 - c Identify rules for planned events and unknown environments HIST-GVNT.2C
 - d Identify and describe various people responsible for enforcing rules HIST-GVNT.2D
 - e Identify possible consequences for not following rules and laws HIST-GVNT.2E
 - f Identify supports and/or adaptations for individuals with disabilities (handicapped parking, guide dogs, elevators, ramps) HIST-GVNT.2F
-

3 Interpret and Understand

- a Understand that there is a process for making, enforcing and interpreting laws HIST-GVNT.3A
 - b Describe how laws and rules are made and enforced HIST-GVNT.3B
 - c Describe the role of citizen advocates in making laws and rules HIST-GVNT.3C
-

4 Apply and Generalize

- a Understand and apply knowledge of government to understand HIST-GVNT.4A
 - 1 Three levels of government HIST-GVNT.4A.1
 - 2 Three branches of government HIST-GVNT.4A.2
 - 3 and How they interact with one another to help citizens HIST-GVNT.4A.3
 - b Understand and advocate for personal rights guaranteed by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) HIST-GVNT.4B
 - c Determine how ADA pertains to life after graduation HIST-GVNT.4C
 - d Advocate for laws and rules that are under consideration by writing letters, visiting law makers, and/or making speeches to voice personal opinion HIST-GVNT.4D
-

Financial aspects of government - The student demonstrates an understanding of basic economic principles and the role of the United States government in the economy. HIST-FINANCE

1 Recognize and Recall

- a Recognize that people have jobs that pay money HIST-FINANCE.1A
- b Recognize and/or name community services (fire, police) HIST-FINANCE.1B

2 Identify and Comprehend

- a Identify people and careers that earn income in the form of wages, salaries and tips HIST-FINANCE.2A
- b Understand that people work to purchase goods and services HIST-FINANCE.2B
- c Understand that people pay various taxes to pay for public goods and services HIST-FINANCE.2C

3 Interpret and Understand

- a Distinguish between payroll deductions including social security and state and federal taxes and take-home pay HIST-FINANCE.3A
- b Describe and understand ways in which the government provides services to assist people (unemployed, elderly, disabled, or low income) HIST-FINANCE.3B

4 Apply and Generalize

- a Demonstrate knowledge and economic reasoning skills to make sound financial and career decisions HIST-FINANCE.4A
- b Identify sources of personal income, deductions, and taxes HIST-FINANCE.4B
- c Apply knowledge to prepare documents related to paying taxes and choosing a financial institution HIST-FINANCE.4C
- d Understand and apply knowledge related to funding of their disability; and processes involved with applying for social security, Medicaid, grants and student loans HIST-FINANCE.4D

Laws and rules of good citizenship - The student demonstrates characteristics of a good citizen by participating in various settings, respecting individual rights of others, staying informed, obeying rules and the law, and voting. WRS- 2, 4, 6, 12 HIST-LAWS

1 Recognize and Recall

- a Recognize and follow a set of “universal” rules in a variety of settings HIST-LAWS.1A
- b Identify situations in which people act as good citizens in the school community HIST-LAWS.1B
 - 1 respect for the rights of others HIST-LAWS.1B.1
 - 2 voting HIST-LAWS.1B.2
 - 3 volunteering HIST-LAWS.1B.3
 - 4 honesty HIST-LAWS.1B.4

2 Identify and Comprehend

- a Demonstrates an awareness of rules specific to locations such as home, work, and school HIST-LAWS.2A
- b Understand the role of rules and laws in daily life HIST-LAWS.2B
- c Understand the basic structure of the government HIST-LAWS.2C

- d Understand the voting process by recognizing that others may have different interest or opinions and participating in a group activity HIST-LAWS.2D

3 Interpret and Understand

- a Explain the basic purpose of government is to make, carry out, and interpret laws HIST-LAWS.3A
- b Understand and take appropriate action to seek help when rules and laws have been broken HIST-LAWS.3B
- c Differentiate between individual and civic duties/responsibilities of American citizens HIST-LAWS.3C
- d Research topics to make informed decisions HIST-LAWS.3D
- e Understand the voting process to register to vote, identify local polling place, and vote HIST-LAWS.3E

4 Apply and Generalize

- a Engage ethically in civic activities including discussing current issues, advocating for their rights and the rights of others HIST-LAWS.4A
- b Practice civic responsibilities including voting and community service HIST-LAWS.4B
- c Participates effectively in civic life through knowing how to stay informed and understanding governmental processes HIST-LAWS.4C

Map Skills - The student demonstrates an awareness of where places are located and utilizes resources find, navigate, and describe locations. HIST-MAPS

1 Recognize and Recall

- a Recognize that a map is a drawing of a place and where things are located HIST-MAPS.1A
- b Identify pictures of local public buildings HIST-MAPS.1B
- c Recognizes simple location words HIST-MAPS.1C

2 Identify and Comprehend

- a Distinguish symbols, direction and physical features identified on a map HIST-MAPS.2A
- b Use a map to locate a variety places within a community including but not limited to grocery stores, restaurants, gas station, police station, hospitals, entertainment establishments HIST-MAPS.2B
- c Locates street addresses HIST-MAPS.2C
- d Demonstrates an understanding of vocabulary related to directionality HIST-MAPS.2D
- e Create a simple map or directions to a place or location HIST-MAPS.2E

3 Interpret and Understand

- a Use a map to apply understanding of directionality, location, and place HIST-MAPS.3A

- b Use speech generated devices, printed text/map or own voice, to give simple, accurate directions HIST-MAPS.3B
 - c Use maps and guides in a variety of formats (paper, digital, drawn) to navigate various settings HIST-MAPS.3C
-

4 Apply and Generalize

- a Uses a variety of maps including but not limited to satellite images, photographs and/or diagrams to arrive at a selected location HIST-MAPS.4A
 - b Use available technology to access a variety of maps and apply knowledge of maps to access directions to a variety of locations HIST-MAPS.4B
 - c Applies knowledge of maps, vocabulary, and known landmarks to give directions to familiar locations and/or work related destinations HIST-MAPS.4C
 - d Uses electronic systems or global positioning systems to find various locations HIST-MAPS.4D
-

Economics - The student demonstrates a basic understanding of economics to make reasonable economic decisions about their own lives and become effective consumers, employers, and workers. HIST-ECON

1 Recognize and Recall

- a Recognize and make choices HIST-ECON.1A
 - b Recognize and identify wants versus needs HIST-ECON.1B
 - c Recognize and practice the concept of saving. Saving means choosing not to spend money in order to buy something in the future. HIST-ECON.1C
-

2 Identify and Comprehend

- a Recognize that people work to earn money to make purchases HIST-ECON.2A
 - b Recognize the choices people have to make about the goods and services they buy and sell and why they have to make choices HIST-ECON.2B
 - c Actively participates in a mini-economy as part of classroom activities as a means to earn currency to purchase desired items HIST-ECON.2C
 - d Identify needs of consumers HIST-ECON.2D
-

3 Interpret and Understand

- a Identify examples of income sources that are product-related and that are service-related HIST-ECON.3A
 - b Identify and understand the components and choices in a personal spending plan, including income, planned saving and expenses HIST-ECON.3B
 - c Understand how payroll deductions including social security and state and federal taxes impact personal spending plans and saving HIST-ECON.3C
-

4 Apply and Generalize

- a Understand and apply knowledge and economic reasoning skills to make sound financial and career decisions by identifying sources of personal income and likely deductions that will impact their financial plan HIST-ECON.4A

- b Understand and use appropriate forms of payment (credit, debit, layaway, checks, cash) when making purchases HIST-ECON.4B
 - c Apply knowledge and economic reasoning skills to create and use a plan to set and manage spending and achieve financial goals, and save for the future HIST-ECON.4C
 - d Demonstrate how to schedule and effectively manage bill payments HIST-ECON.4D
-

Interpersonal Skills -
The student demonstrates ability to work collaboratively, communicate effectively, develop and maintain relationships, and utilize feedback.
WRS: 3, 5, 8, 17, 21 HIST-PERS

1 Recognize and Recall

- a Recognize peers, coworkers, supervisors by name HIST-PERS.1A
 - b Return greetings appropriate to context (familiar vs. unfamiliar people) HIST-PERS.1B
 - c Waits his/her turn in a variety of contexts HIST-PERS.1C
 - d Recognizes personal space and items belonging to others HIST-PERS.1D
-

2 Identify and Comprehend

- a Follows directions from supervisor HIST-PERS.2A
 - b Ignores inappropriate or unsafe instructions, refuses requests appropriately HIST-PERS.2B
 - c Maintains personal space and asks before using others' belongings HIST-PERS.2C
 - d Initiates conversations with appropriate topics for setting HIST-PERS.2D
 - e Identifies when others may need assistance and offers to help HIST-PERS.2E
 - f Interrupts conversations appropriately and when necessary HIST-PERS.2F
 - g Initiates and ends conversations HIST-PERS.2G
 - i Changes or alters behavior to match behavior of others within the same setting HIST-PERS.2I
 - h Identifies unfriendly individuals and bullying behavior HIST-PERS.2H
 - j Reports situations in which the student feels uncomfortable or unsafe HIST-PERS.2J
-

3 Interpret and Understand

- a Contributes to team by completing assigned tasks and assisting others HIST-PERS.3A
- b Communicates politely with all communication partners HIST-PERS.3B
- c Accepts corrective feedback with a regulated emotional response HIST-PERS.3C
- d Talks about others' behavior in appropriate settings and contexts HIST-PERS.3D
- e Displays appropriate behavior when attracted to others or others are attracted to them HIST-PERS.3E
- f Explains consequences of positive social influence vs. inappropriate peer pressure HIST-PERS.3F

g Disagrees by presenting evidence or opinion without criticizing others HIST-PERS.3G

h Asks for modifications in the environment when needed HIST-PERS.3H

4 Apply and Generalize

a Tactfully offers suggestions and feedback HIST-PERS.4A

b Utilizes conflict resolution strategies to reach solutions HIST-PERS.4B

c When given corrective feedback, develops and uses plan to change behavior HIST-PERS.4C

d Maintains a variety of positive relationships (friends, co-workers, supervisors) through regular correspondence HIST-PERS.4D