Grades 9-12

Quality Parenting Environments

Students will demonstrate knowledge of

1 parenting roles. 0903.1
2 family structures. 0903.1
3 parenting styles. 0903.1
4 positive parenting practices. 0903.1
5 external influences on family. 0903.1
6 problem resolution. 0903.1

Students will

1 examine roles and responsibilities relating to positive parenting practices. 0903.2
2 examine family structures. 0903.3
3 develop and implement long and short term goals for fulfilling the roles of parenting. 0903.4
4 identify critical thinking, practical reasoning and problem solving skills useful to parents and families in resolving practical problems. 0903.5
5 compare the differences between guidance, discipline and punishment. 0903.6
6 evaluate the types, causes and effects of child abuse and neglect. 0903.7
7 assess the importance of setting developmentally appropriate expectations. 0903.8
8 analyze outcomes of parenting practices for children, families and society. 0903.9
9 separation and loss. 0903.10
10 discuss conflict resolution techniques. 0903.11
11 children and parents. 0903.12
12 children and parents. 0903.13
13 philosophies and practices. 0903.14

Relationship Readiness and Enrichment

Students will demonstrate knowledge of

1 parent role expectations. 0903.15
2 types of relationships. 0903.15
costs and rewards of parenting. 0903.15
the effects of parenting on lifestyle and relationships. 0903.15

Skip to main content

5 self-esteem and its effects on relationships. 0903.15

6 personal readiness for parenting. 0903.15

Students will

1 examine parent role expectations and readiness. 0903.16

2 summarize biological processes. 0903.17

3 estimate the costs of rearing a child. 0903.18

4 examine the interrelationships of parenting, career and other life goals. 0903.19

Emotional and Physical Effects of Parenthood

Students will demonstrate knowledge of

1 factors contributing to emotional and physical health of mother, father and baby during pre-natal period. 0903.20

2 factors contributing to emotional and physical health of mother, father and baby during post-natal period. 0903.20

3 examine parents' roles during pregnancy. 0903.20

4 emotional changes during pregnancy. 0903.20

5 bonding processes. 0903.20

6 family adjustments and coping strategies after pregnancy. 0903.20

7 the effects of exposure to various hazards on fetal development. 0903.20

Students will

1 explain factors contributing to emotional and physical health of mother, father and baby during prenatal period including the effects of exposure to various hazards on fetal development . 0903.21

2 discuss factors contributing to emotional and physical health of mother, father and baby during post-natal period. 0903.22

3 describe parents' roles during pregnancy and the emotional changes that occur. 0903.23

4 explain the impact of bonding on parent-child relationships. 0903.24

5 discuss family adjustments and coping strategies after pregnancy. 0903.25

Developmental Milestone Preparedness

Students will demonstrate knowledge of

1 social, emotional, intellectual, physical, and moral development milestones for infants, toddlers, preschoolers and school-aged children through adolescence. 0903.26

2 food, play, health and safety needs of children at various developmental stages. 0903.26

Skip to main content

:udents will examine the essential elements representing the development of children. 0903.27

2 assess parenting practices that meet developmental needs. 0903.28

3 demonstrate practices that nurture the development of children. 0903.29

4 plan strategies for meeting individual developmental challenges and special needs. 0903.30

5 explain strategies for integrating a new child into the family. 0903.31

6 plan and implement strategies to enhance development of children through play and activities. 0903.32

7 demonstrate the use of appropriate communication skills with children in various stages of development. 0903.33

8 examine strategies for meeting nutritional needs. 0903.34

9 explain the impact of the bonding process on parentchild relationships. 0903.35

Family Resource Identification and Assessment

Students will demonstrate knowledge of

1 effective parenting support systems. 0903.36

2 child care program evaluation. 0903.36

3 sources of assistance available to families. 0903.36

4 school success strategies. 0903.36

5 family financial management. 0903.36

Students will

1 outline components of effective parenting support systems. 0903.37

2 develop criteria for evaluating quality child care programs. 0903.38

3 assess resources available to ensure the well-being of child and parent. 0903.39

4 explain methods for fostering student success. 0903.40